Easy read, and lots of new info. Does not only pertain to cave art but multiple facets of sociology and philosophy

By benjamin echeverria

I didn't buy this of amazon, I checked it out at my library and it's a great read! I accidentally fell into an interest in cave art and this was a good follow up to The Cave Painters: Probing the Mysteries of the World's First Artists, (2007) Random House, by Gregory Curtis, which I did buy on Amazon. This book was published in 2013 so it's pretty up to date.

all the greats are mentioned in this book and some I didn't know, i.e. fleck and those folks mentioned at the end of the abstract.
