Entertaining Sleaze and Retro Weirdness

By Darrick Dishaw

Cinema Sewer is a phenomenal series. I've learned a lot. And as an exploitation junkie, I need to further my education. Some films were familiar to me like Ilsa: She-Wolf of the SS, but many more were strange. CS is more than just movie reviews with amusing and/or fascinating anecdotes. It has personal essays, trivia, and wild rated-X illustrations. If you love the first three volumes, then I highly recommend the fourth installment.

Robin Bougie does the hard work of sifting through the sewer so we don't have to get our hands dirty... until a real gem appears. Can't wait for #5!

Preaching to the Perverted

By Ramm

I've gotten rapidly addicted to Robin Bougie's fun and fact-filled series of compendiums of sinema smut. Having devoured the first 3 book formatted collections of his funky hand-drawn (and lettered!) expositions on exploitation I was pretty pleased to see yet a fourth volume released upon the world. It should go-eth without saying that I'm a fan of the genre so I'm 'open' to the outrageous style of "Cinema Sewer" - providing, as it does, a blend of amusing and informative writing with X-rated illos that shed light upon the grimy underside of the world of film. I particularly appreciate that Cinema Sewer covers a wide range of periods and styles of exploitation film ranging from classic Hollywood film noir to the most esoteric Japanese gonzo porn - and pretty much everything in between.

Bougie's approach to it all, and especially the XXX end of things is refreshingly unapologetic - in fact he's a crusader for a more liberal mind set when it comes to porn and sex in general and some of his editorial 'rants' take aim at the stultifying forces for 'decency' in the world. But, mostly the written & illustrated content 'celebrates' the (s)exploitation genre and each issue is literally packed with insightful film reviews, biographical sketches of porn & exploitation performers, random factoids, reproductions of classic promo art, and also original X-rated drawings & comix produced by Bougie himself and a legion of his bent, like minded, friends.

Robin apparently does a pile of research on his beloved subject matter and the various articles are full of interesting inside info that is presented in an amusingly irreverent writing style. The Cinema Sewer has helped me (much to my bank accounts detriment) to discover and purchase many exploitation gems that I, otherwise, might have remained blissfully unaware of. As one might imagine from the subject matter covered, 'Cinema Sewer' is definitely an 'adults only' product - but if you ARE an adult and love the weirder side of film, this series of books is pure gold.

Latest edition of THE GREATEST exploitation cinema comic and resource in existence!

By David Millstein

Robin Bougie's ongoing Cinema Sewer is the epitome of 'labor of love'. This manically laid out and illustrated guide takes you on an almost stream-of-consciousness tour through all sorts of nooks and crannies of exploitation cinema. Grindhouse roughies, action flicks, kung-fu movies, '70s and '80s porn, spine-shredding horror -- all this and much, much, much more are addressed in Bougie's hilarious yet incredibly well-versed style. Random memories, lists, and anecdotes sit along side more traditional write-ups and overviews of different films, film series', genres, trends, etc. Indispensable for true cinephiles!
