It's as simple as ABC but only in reverse! Napoleon Hill states, "Whatever the mind can conceive and believe, the mind can achieve." This simple statement reminds us that the power of the Universe is within each and every one of us. By directing our mind in the path we wish it to go, we determine our ultimate destiny. Simple truths hold profound wisdom. But, just because the truths are simple, does not mean that they are easy. It is my greatest hope that this little book of 52 essays will inspire you weekly to take appropriate action towards your dreams. Dreams come and go, but those that come true are the ones that you believe in without a doubt. When you believe in the power of your dreams you are compelled to take immediate action to make them a reality. May all your dreams come true! Be Your Very Best Always, Judith Williamson

Great Reading To Stimulate Your Thinking

By Tom Cunningham

I purchase all Napoleon Hill Foundation books and read them all from cover to cover. This book is a compilation of Judy Williamson's articles from the weekly ezine of the Foundation for the year 2012. I am one of the regular contributors to the ezine as a guest columnist. I am quoted to start chapter 2 of this book. Buy this book and read it. It will stimulate your thinking and help you with ideas to achieve your Definite Purpose and goals.

Conceive it!

I love the idea of the Science of Success way of thinking. I enjoy learning to develop my life through having a purpose, a plan and achievement. I then believe that it will come to fruition, and with the help of God it does!

I don't think more honest words have ever been spoken. I know that in my life I have done this without knowing it and gotten great results. I feel that by living these messages for a full year will turn anyone's life around.
