D'Nealian practice

By Lia Smurf

This book also offers good practice for learning D'Nealian and continues to Cursive. I would not use this initially when teaching, but once child/person has practiced D'Nealian method for awhile. Recommend "My D'Nealian" by Thurber to start and this one later.

Not worth it.

By Brian C.

This book is pretty basic and doesn't really have very many practice pages. I was hoping it would somehow be better than the free pages I printed off the internet, but it really is not. I have no idea why others are rating it so high. Save your money!

Handwriting practice

By AZ mom of 4

This booklet and its companion booklet (Uppercase) are perfect for my third grade students. The pages make for a quick practice each morning.
