The devil wants me in his bed, and there's nothing that'll stand in his way.

The word average was never something he was good at. He didn't have a normal job or a normal life. Instead, he does what he's best at: take control of everything and everyone around him.

Tonight, he's got his eyes on me.

He doesn't care that my perfect flawless life has no room for a tatted up devil biker.

He doesn't care that I might be making a terrible mistake.

He just wants me. I can tell from the way he's staring at me.

And I f*****g love it.

This is a full length standalone new adult romance novel with a guaranteed HEA ending and NO CLIFFHANGERS

Hot but...

By Josie Swope

The book was really hot and I loed the characters. But I am a little confused abut one thing. It seems like the Black Aces are more of a background thing. I mean, I personally like it when the romance is front and center, but I guess I was just a bit disappointed that all the MC action came towards the end of the book.

One star was a compliment

By Kindle Customer

The main characters were all weak-minded. I could've handled maybe one or two, but all four? No. This man let this child cheat on her significant other with him for a year? She wanted to continue the affair after she got married because she "loved" him. True bulls***. And then the story tried to make her dad out to be the bad guy when he asked if she had any morals. He shouldn't have called her a whore, but her morals are very questionable. I felt so bad for Terry. The other love story between Treble and Lindy was okay, but still shaky. If it was just a love story about them, it might have gotten a higher rating from me, but the switching back and forth was unnecessary, especially between sisters.

Overall: the plot line was less than desirable and the writing style was meh. I skimmed through it because I could not stand Bridgett.

Don't believe the hype

By Kindle Customer

This book was just a complete flop for me. It had no story line and the characters were absolutely vile, Bridget was probably the worst character I have ever read. So she cheats on a great guy their entire relationship, breaks up with him in front of her family days before the wedding then has the wedding but inserts a different groom??? What? And who would go to that mess anyway. Also how horrible is it to leave someone after cheating on them and then dad buys the tickets to the honeymoon he planned back? I don't care how good of a person you are no one would respond like Terry did. The most ridiculous part of the book however was when her sister Lindy caught her having sex and instead of immediately turning away disgusted, she watches and talks to her boyfriend about how sexy her sister is and the look of ecstasy on her face. No. The only way this book could be worse if one or both of them ended up pregnant at the end. Seriously stay away.
