Cool, Funny, Intriguing Book!

By Jean Baldrige Yates

This fun book by author Heidi Priebe is engaging, full of facts about each personality type, and very true. I was laughing at many of the situations some of the 16 Meyers Briggs Personality Types were described in, and at their imagined choices and reactions. However, this book is never cruel and doesn't play favorites, even if the author is herself an ENFP.

I took 4 or 5 tests online to see which personality type I am before I read this book. It isn't necessary to do that, however, because the author has provided a quick test right at the beginning of the book so that you, the reader, can figure out "what you are" with no difficulty. That is, assuming your S.O. has left the book out on the bedside table, and is busy taking a shower. Wait...that is also assuming your S.O. has halfway decent cleanliness habits and takes a long enough shower. That's Heidi's joke. She says it way more amusingly. Read this charming book and have some fun--you deserve it! And nah, I am not going to tell you which personality type I am! I enjoyed spotting a few of my family members and my best friend and I am not going to tell them, either! Let them find themselves!

I think it is a good starter book for somebody who has never heard about Myer Briggs Personality typology. It gives good general information (Maybe a book you would use for fun at a party?). Being familiar with the concept, it did not hold the additional wisdom for me that I was hoping to find.

Funny and insightful

By mke04

Nothing like a humorous self-involved read to freshen up on personality theories. Quick and easy read a delight for all readers.
