Opposites attract! This unexplainable law of nature that mysteriously draws objects of opposite natures and characteristics together creates some major challenges in relationships. Could it be that God Himself is behind this irresistible force that draws us together for higher purposes than we at first may not understand? This book explores how the very traits that one finds so endearing and attractive at first in a relationship may in time come to drive you crazy! It is a practical and real life story of how God can use these divine differences to bring balance and blessing into our lives and into His Kingdom. So how are we to survive life when a hawk marries a turtle?

Relationships

By D. Weaver

This book helps us examine our hearts in regard to our spouse. It helps us to realize that some of the ways we're used to dealing with situations is not always the best way to deal with them or the way He would have us to deal with them. One of the things covered is not to nag but instead to pray & pray some more. We need to realize that even though we don't see our future God does and we need to have faith to believe He will bring us through things that arise.

There is also a study guide area in the back of the book to work on.

opposite

By Dottie Miley

Good book about how two people that are opposite to each other can work together to become a team.

God takes the differences and causes them to work together for His purpose.

Recommend for all married couples.
