Awake O Sleeper

This book is a must read for anyone who feels that there should be more to a relationship with the Creator of the Universe. Tommy writes with an honest and insightful look into what it means to be a child/disciple/follower of Jesus Christ that only comes from one who has taken the path less traveled. Once I opened this book, I could not put it down... even though it convicted me in so many ways of how I have settled for less with my walk with Christ. I don't want to make it seem that this book is only for those who profess to be a "christian" because "we don't need another book here. I'm sorry. But let's have it right. Jesus' love and relationship is all we truly need"(p.25). This book would more be described as an alarm for everyone to awaken from the slumber of religion and to allow the love of God become our true nature and that love to be poured out into this world. Tommy may not write with an eloquence or style of a seasoned professional, but he does write from the heart and that is what you will hear when you read this. In fact, this is what I have found most endearing because never did I feel like I was reading but listening to a friend express the desire for a generation to rise up and embrace the calling as the Bride of Christ. A powerful read that I would recommend all to read and pass along to anyone who needs a fire lit inside to follow a supernatural love.

Challenging Viewpoints. Worthwhile Read.

By Amazon Customer

I love that Tommy mentions in the introduction to the book that not everyone will agree with his views completely. Though there were some insights I was able to draw from, some of what he discusses I have a hard time agreeing with. It is still fascinating to learn what he believes and how he worships, even though it's very different than what I'm used to. So, for everyone thinking about reading this book, be aware that you may not agree with everything. Some of what you find in here may even challenge what you do believe. But it's still a worthwhile read, especially for all of the Sleeping Giant fans out there.
