WINNER OF THE WATTYS AWARD 2015

THE #1 SCIENCE FICTION NOVEL ON WATTPAD

After a close brush with death, Jarod ends up in a hospital, traumatized but alive. He thinks he is lucky to get off with minor injuries, but he soon realizes that something is wrong when he starts behaving abnormally.

Eventually, Jarod finds out the truth behind his erratic behavior—that there is someone in his head. From that point on, he is launched into a series of fast-paced and heart-pounding adventures as he tries to find out the person's identity. But, as he digs deeper, Jarod uncovers more and more shocking truths that have been buried for decades, and secrets that people would kill to protect.

Someone's In My Head is a thrilling and suspenseful science-fiction novel that will grip you with its exciting plot and charm you with its humorous dialogues. Narrated in first-person by the witty Jarod Wickernham, it brings to you the future of human technology and discusses the ominous repercussions of mind control.

An enthralling read, this first installment of The Wickernham Trilogy is definitely worth every single penny stated on its price tag.
