Great for Getting Your Toes Wet

The Psychic Bible: The Definitive Guide to Developing Your Psychic Skills

This book covers quite a bit of everything "New Age", including meditation, dream journaling, chakras, crystals, and more. While it doesn't go into great depth on many of the topics, it IS enough to get the basic idea behind a topic, and pique interest for more in-depth study on one's own.

AN EXCELLENT REFERENCE GUIDE TO PSYCHIC AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH !!!, 5 Mar 2009

By LIZ L. PRAKASH

Jane Struthers` "The Psychic Bible": This is a great book I received just now, a real reference guide to everything psychic and I must confess that I`m indeed highly delighted with it. Its "400" pages are filled with lots of fantastic pictures and valuable info on almost every psychic topic, so it`s a real pleasure for me reading it, it`s the right "stuff" for newbies starting their psychic development and also good for those - myself included - who are a bit more familiar with psychism and spirituality since a longer time. Even if you are already into psychism, having your own psychic tools (mine are crystal pendulums, chakra-crystals, precious and semi-precious crystals and black concave and obsidian mirrors), just interested in ghosts, the paranormal, past lives, angels and spirit guides, mediumship and spiritualism, clairvoyance, clairaudience, clairsentience, psychometry, dreams, lucidity, astral projection, meditation and remote viewing, precognition and premonition, telepathy/ESP, pendulum dowsing and several other divination methods, crystals, scrying, alternative healing methods etc. you should buy and try this book which is indeed a very good read. And if you like Cassandra Eason, Judy Hall, Sarah Bartlett etc and their books - as I do - you will also like Jane Struthers and her "Psychic Bible". So buy it, have the same pleasure with it as I have as it`s an excellent guide to psychic and spiritual growth ! Even now at this very moment I have the book with me, I can hardly put it down !!! Highly Recommended !!!

Highly recommend, BUT.....

By rosebud

I do recommend the book for beginners like myself, but I was able to read this on loan from my local public library, and I can TOTALLY see why someone actually PURCHASING the book may end up being very disappointed for two reasons.

First, "bible" suggests that you pretty much need no other book because this is THEE book to have on the topic "psychic", and the "fact" that there are 400 pages would seeeeeem to confirm that. However, it's ACTUALLY a tiny (5" x 5"?) 400 page PICTURE BOOK, with most of those pictures being generic "brochure type" photos, and therefore not INFORMATIVE in and of themselves. The book is very glossy and printed on very thick quality stock, but without the pictures, I'm thinking the book would have 100 pages or less.

Secondly, while the book does touch on very many, but probably not ALL, psychic topics or elements, again, the term "bible" would lead one to expect exhaustive (in a good way) elaboration on each subject that it mentions---and, again the 400 pages would lead most TO that expectation. However, if you ARE expecting that, you will probably be disappointed, because the text satisfies you more the way an article or brochure on a subject would, and not the way a book should. Reading this book leaves you excited about GETTING your hands on various OTHER books for each subject mentioned.

With that said, I highly recommend the book for beginners because you'll be given an introductory taste of different things and you'll then have a better idea of where you'd like to start and dig in on your psychic journey, and be able to draw yourself a very good map for it as well. I miss it since returning it to the library, so am ordering my own copy from Amazon.
