From Navajo eyes

By RezerWreck

My high school teacher does it again, well researched and good as stories garnered from men I grew up knowing...Ray Hunt (Ghani) Oshlih, and John Holiday...

My only critique would be why he has no mention of the great medicine men and principal headline and figures that made up the settling and stories behind the history of the territory he writes about.

Where is Hashkenaneii, Spane Shank, Hataliih Hozhonih, Kayellih, Hasteen Altsis'eh', Ashii'ih' A'dil'loh'ih'...

He borrows and returns to repeating stories from Oshlhi and John Holiday, of which only one is a medicine man and the other a hand trembled diagnostic practitioner.
