Top Ten is one of Alan Moore's best works. Arguably it's his best series and yes, I have read Watchmen and Swamp Thing to make the comparison. The first issue shows off everything to love about this series, and I assure you that it only gets better from here.

The main selling point of this issue is the sheer level of detail. Gene Ha's artwork is good as it is, and it's loaded with background events and jokes to complement the main plot. Not to mention how well realized the characters are in such a short time.

So when you ask if you should buy this issue, I say NO. GO FIND THE FULL COLLECTION AND BUY THAT!
