A 1000% improvement on an already great work!

By Dr. Jerry Parks, National Teacher's Hall of Fame, 2009

Why it took so long to organize Vine's this way is a mystery, but when I laid eyes on the commentary format of this work, I knew my teaching preparation would be improved tremendously.

I've always loved word studies, but admittedly, put Vine's away in favor of more commentary-oriented reference material. But now seeing his excellent and thorough exegesis exactly where each term belongs in a passage is a tremendous improvement. The book cross-references itself nicely, and it's as if a wise mind took a mere handful of days and organized them into a calendar. I really feel the use of Vine's work and effort are now fully utilizable.

For those who don't recall Vine's as he was, you may not appreciate how truly helpful this new format has become. The dictionary was good. The commentary is outstanding! If Dr. Vine could see this, I have no doubt he'd say: "...now why didn't I think of that?"
